July 30 – August 2

Camp AsthmaCadabra is an overnight camp for children who have asthma. The camp runs from July 30 to August 2, 2009 at the YMCA's Camp Kresge, White Haven, PA.

Sponsored by the:

MAX & LORRAINE FOUNDATION

and

AMERICAN LUNG ASSOCIATION of Pennsylvania

Camp AsthmaCadabra is for boys and girls ages 7–12 who might otherwise be denied a summer camping experience because of their asthma.

Lots of Activities, Education & Fun

Camp AsthmaCadabra's main goal is for children with asthma to have fun and enjoy a weekend camping adventure. The emphasis is to help children better understand their asthma.

Children will increase their self-confidence and enhance their ability to cope with their asthma.

What You Need to Know

Camp AsthmaCadabra is:

- A summer camp for children ages 7 – 12 who have asthma.
- Thursday, July 30th through Sunday, August 2nd.
- At the YMCA's Camp Kresge in White Haven, Pennsylvania.

*Due to the generous support of our sponsors, the cost of each camper will be covered.*

Other important information:

- Space is limited so preregister as soon as possible.
- Experienced and knowledgeable medical staff will be on-site around the clock.
- Please return attached preregistration form and $25 fee per camper by June 15, 2009. NO FORMS WILL BE ACCEPTED AFTER THAT DATE.
- NEW for 2009! Online preregistration. Go to www.campasthmacadabra.org and click "Campers" on the navigation bar for details. Deadlines/fees are the same as above.

In addition to traditional summer camp activities like swimming, boating, and arts & crafts, campers will participate in educational sessions on asthma and how it affects them. Topics will include: What is asthma? What is it doing to my body? They will also learn about nutrition, triggers, medications, relaxation, and controlling asthma.

Camp AsthmaCadabra is a great way to make friends, have a wonderful summer camping experience, and learn more about asthma in a fun atmosphere.
